What Matters to God

It makes no difference to God whether you have been awarded a doctorate by a university or are struggling through the School of Hard Knocks. What matters to God is whether or not you have His Word of instruction written on your heart—And if that's what matters to God, then that's all that should matter to me.

It makes no difference to God whether you send your kids to a private or public school. What matters to God is whether or not you are bringing them up in His training and admonition—And if that's what matters to God, then that's all that should matter to me.

It makes no difference to God whether you wear fine dress shoes or flip-flop sandals. What matters to God is whether or not you are clothed in humility—And if that's what matters to God, then that's all that should matter to me.

It makes no difference to God whether you have a house at the beach or an apartment in the projects. What matters to God is whether or not you have a home in heaven—And if that's what matters to God, then that's all that should matter to me.

It makes no difference to God whether you are a member of the country club or the gun club. What matters to God is whether or not you are a member of the church—And if that's what matters to God, then that's all that should matter to me.

It makes no difference to God whether you are awash with success in a large corporation or washing dishes at a small local diner. What matters to God is whether or not you wash the feet of the disciples—And if that's what matters to God, then that's all that should matter to me.

It makes no difference to God whether you sing with the Metropolitan Opera or fail to carry your tune in a bucket. What matters to God is whether or not you make melody in your heart to the Lord—And if that's what matters to God, then that's all that should matter to me.

It makes no difference to God whether you can amaze with your flowery oration or stammer and spit when you speak. What matters to God is whether or not you speak a good word for Jesus—And if that's what matters to God, then that's all that should matter to me.

It makes no difference to God whether you are great or small in the eyes of men. What matters to God is whether or not you genuinely love the brethren—And if that's what matters to God, then that's all that should matter to me.

announce the winners. Everyone is encouraged to participate. Please sign the list at the information center in the foyer if you plan to participate. This will be such a good practice for the kids and it will also be fun for everyone!! If you have any questions you may contact Johnny or Donna Hope.
