TIM'S TESTIMONY
State of Youth Culture

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life."

John 3:16

Everyone has a worldview. Our worldview is the framework or glasses we see everything through. Consequently everything is interpreted through these glasses. That's ok if we have a Biblical worldview. The problem is in a recent survey, pollster George Barna reported that 83 percent of teenagers in this country today believe that "moral truth depends on the circumstances." Think about that. And "only 6 percent believe that moral truth is absolute." Perhaps the most disturbing of all, "only 9 percent of those who claim to be born-again teens believe in moral absolutes." That's only one in ten of our Christian kids!

The sad truth is that these kids don't understand what they say they believe about God, and they have no idea how their faith should affect their thinking and their lives. That's frightening not only for them, but also for the Church. If our future leaders don't believe in absolute truth – even though they say they know the God who is the source of all truth – what kind of future can we expect?

But the encouraging thing is that the kids are asking the right questions. This effort to teach our teens a Christian worldview is a passion of mine. Every parent of every child needs to understand the importance of teaching worldview to students. Instead of merely sharing the basics of faith, or just communicating a faith based mostly on good feelings. We need to understand that our task is to show kids a whole new way of looking at the world – a way that's radically different from the moral relativism that contemporary culture teaches them. This way we will provide honest, intelligent, Biblically-grounded answers to the serious questions many of these kids are asking.

In Ephesians, we're told that we are to work toward "the equipping of the saints for the work of the ministry." Clearly, given the corroded state of our youth culture, we cannot start too soon.

MATRIMONY SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 14: Sunday February 14th is Valentine's Day. Our message is "He Loves Me" (John 3:16). All of our songs will be "Love Songs". We will have tables set up in the foyer so we can all bring our Wedding Albums or just a Wedding Photo and place them on these tables before worship service so we can all see each other's wedding day. If your spouse is deceased bring your pictures too so we can see them again. This should be a lot of fun as we think of God's gift of Love.

OUR MISSION: loving God, loving people and serving the world

THE ADULT VALETINE'S PARTY is planned for Saturday, February 13, at 6:30 p.m. in the multipurpose room. Please bring sandwiches, snacks, desserts or drinks.
