KEN'S PEN

A Word of Thanks

Many of you have suffered far greater illnesses and injuries than I have. And, although every circumstance has its own unique turns and twists, I'm certain that my experience was not as spiritually challenging as some of yours. Nevertheless, with any setback, we all face the strain that comes when our loved ones or we are challenged with physical suffering.

It may be a cliché by now, but I, as many others before me, feel a huge degree of inadequacy by simply saying "thank you" for the support and encouragement that has been sent my way during the last couple of weeks. You have showered me with get-well cards, graced me with visits and phone calls, provided me with scrumptious treats, and substituted for me when I was unable to adequately fulfill my responsibilities.

In addition to this, you have provided support to my family. Of all the things that you did for me personally, the greatest act was with regard to those for whom I worry most of all. If you are a father (or single parent), you know the concern that develops when you are rendered helpless and unable to provide your dependents with the security and leadership that they need. My concerns were immediately relieved with the multitude of volunteers who came to the rescue during my weakest moments.

Unlike Job, I never despaired at the uncertainty of life, or the greater question of "why me." Instead, I thanked God that He has surrounded me with a support structure that maintains a positive disposition when all else seems to be coming unglued.

So, I have become a better man as a result of God's administering of blessings through you. No, maybe it's that I have become a better father...husband...son...Christian.... In fact, perhaps through your service to my family and me, I have come to appreciate what it truly means to be a servant. You may not have brought a basin of water and a fresh towel to my bed, but you no less washed our feet through your sacrificial acts of kindness.

As you have prayed for me, so I continually pray God's richest blessings for you.

Care Group Sunday
February 21

Care Groups will meet, Sunday, February 21. There is still time to sign up. If you are not part of a care group and would like to participate please contact Jim Yoho.

Serving The World

OUR MISSION: loving God, loving people and serving the world

THE TUESDAY BIBLE CLASS will meet on February 23, at 10:00 a.m. in room A3.

ANGEL FOOD MINISTRY: The distribution day for February menu is Saturday, February 27. If you can help with distribution, please see the sign up sheet at the information center in the foyer. Contact Dennis Grossman with any questions.

THANKYOU: A heartfelt thank you to my church family for all your kind words, calls, cards, e-mails, flowers, visits, children's artwork, food, goodies and most importantly your prayers. Also, thank you to those unexpected smiling faces I enjoyed seeing around every corner - at the hospital, doctors offices, getting my MRIs and even at my back door. You have truly lifted my spirits and brought a smile to my face during the past weeks.

Please continue to pray that God will grant me patience as He renews my strength and gives me clear vision.

With love to each and every one of you, Ashley Price

Pictorial Directory Update

Many pictures in our pictorial directory are in need of updating. There are also many that need their picture taken for the directory for the first time. You will have this opportunity on Sunday, February 21, 28, or March 7. Jason Tielking will be taking pictures in the Library, just off the foyer, on each of these days between worship service and class time and for just a few moments following class time. If your family is one of the pictures that needs to be taken please make every effort to meet Jason in the Library on one of these days.
