Family Matters

May 9, 2010

Serving The World... ~Matthew 20:25-28

KEN'S PEN

Every Day Is Mother's Day

Mother's Day is annually observed during the month of May, but the inspiration and influence of "motherhood" is experienced worldwide every single day. For us sons and daughters, it is worthwhile to think for a moment or two about what this means to us.

The influence of mothers is without comparison or competition. The church, nations, governments, and society all depend upon our mothers for their stability. Within the home, mother is the reigning queen.

We do well to honor mothers, who are the prime kingdom-builders, chief soul-molders, conspicuous character-constructors, and the leading recruiting agents for the eternal realm above.

As Mother's Day comes around, it is fitting to express our gratitude and honorable esteem to the one who gave us birth and through whose sacrificial love we owe our place in the world. She is the one who cheered us in our successes and consoled us in our defeats. Hers is a sacred name.

Perhaps one of the sweetest sentiments concerning motherhood is this sentence of Henry W. Longfellow: "Even as Christ died for us upon the cross, in the last hour in the unutterable agony of death, He was mindful of His mother, as if to teach us that this holy love should be our last worldly thought."

Many there are, who, as they remember the mothers who gave them birth, have a Mother's Day every day. They remember a tireless love that followed them through their sins and won them back, demonstrating the Christlike power of sacrifice that is never forgotten.
